

Dim Sum and Then Some!

Dine with IDHA and learn the secrets of dim sum cuisine.

Thursday, May 7th, 2009
5:30-7:30pm
New Hong Kong Restaurant
Tickets: $60

Join the International District Housing Alliance and local chef Maxine Chan to learn the art of making dim sum. Guests will be treated to an hour-long cooking demonstration, learn about Chinese teas and dine on the International District's finest Chinese cuisine, including dim sum and additional entrees.

Dim sum means "to touch your heart." Join us and help IDHA continue to touch the hearts of the people we serve. Stay tuned for details on how to register for this unforgettable event!

For questions, contact Miya Forrest at (206)623-5132 ext 319, or e-mail miya@apialliance.org.